Jasper loves to play
computer games.

When Jasper plays on the computer, he does not do his homework, he does not tidy his room and he does not play with his sister.

"JASPER!
GRAB YOUR STUFF
AND LET'S GO!"

He stays in his room all day long playing his computer games...

Mum says, “You need to go to school!”

As soon as Jasper gets home from school, he goes to play more computer games.

Jasper does not play football very well because he spends so much time on the computer, so he doesn't practice much.

When Jasper gets home, he does not do his homework or eat his dinner. He continues playing on the computer.

"JASPER,
PLEASE GET STARTED ON YOUR HOMEWORK, AND WE'RE
EATING DINNER
AT ABOUT SEVEN."

"JASPER...IT'S TIME FOR DINNER.
ARE YOU JUST ABOUT FINISHED WITH YOUR HOMEWORK?"

"YEP!"

Mum is worried. She shows Jasper a mirror and explains that the computer game is controlling him!

"JASPER, I LOVE YOU, AND I REALIZE THAT YOU LOVE TO PLAY VIDEO GAMES."

Jasper says, "But mum, it's just a game!"

Mum explains that playing a game should never be more important than spending time with family and friends, or being at school.

Mum says that one hour on the computer or iPad everyday is enough - any longer and it's too much!

Jasper is a lot happier now that he only spends one hour a day on the computer!
